

December 2016

Happy Holidays!

The Classics Society is holding their annual Roman Coin Fundraiser this month. The fundraiser runs from December 5th through December 9th. People can buy ancient coins from the 300s C.E. for $15 and coin pendants for $40. The coins contain busts of emperors like Valens, Constantius II, and Valentinian to name a few.

The club also has a few community service events this month. On December 3rd, members worked two arts and crafts tables at the holiday fair. Kids were able to make reindeer antlers and decorate foam tree cutouts. Also, on December 10th, the Classics Society will be hosting Tutorama. Any student can come during this time to get help studying for their finals. Final exam review is available for: Elementary Latin, Elementary Greek, Intermediate Latin, Intermediate Greek, Intro to Archaeology, Conversatio, Chinese and Comparative Politics.

The deadline to register your Quiz Bowl team is December 17th. Visit www.quizbowl.info for more details.
